

Living Book – Chinese Style and Living Quarters in the Form of Red Book – “le Maoisme, et le experimentalisme du living” – Alain Badiou

By Alain Badiou

I. 1988 – Alain Badiou on Living Book

In fact there is only living in Maoisme in China – that one forms living experiments which then becomes a mass line for the people and for the leaders a type of red book, which is for the steps of living – what I mean is how to organize a day in the simple steps of Chinese

Maoism – which means in France – architectural living, rhythmanalysis and Henri Lefebvre.

II. Le Quarter du Living – Red Book and how Lenin follows Hegel, Mao follows Red Book

Alain Badiou – argues that I have lived in a cottage room once in the 1989 period – I was also in 2008 there again. I wrote a small note for it –

“Henri Lefebvre is then very important to be realized – just that is Living Book – keep this framework in mind – Mao and France, and it means in fact how I will help a person live better – do not agress on me. That is how I imagine living book – for Mao.”
